Sub:- Leave during Semester and Special Casual Leave – partial modification of guidelines regarding

In partial modification of the Notification No.IITD/IESI/2017/U-6/27506 dated 21.03.2017, the Chairman, Board of Governors has approved the following partial modification of guidelines to rationalize the restrictions on leave during teaching days with immediate effect:-

1. The maximum number of leave that any faculty member involved in teaching can take in a semester is revised from 10 days to 15 days, which includes Special Casual Leave and all types of leave except for any leave taken on medical grounds. However, a faculty member will be expected to ensure that any classes lost due to such leave be made up without causing any inconvenience to the students.
2. Special Casual Leave can be availed during the semester period only for a maximum of five consecutive working days at a time unless prefixed / suffixed with the period of mid-semester break. Faculty members can avail five consecutive working as SCL at a time only twice in a semester. Any SCL taken during mid-semester break will not be counted towards this.
3. There will be no maximum limit of trips outside the country within the semester time period. However, there should be no violation of any of the leave rules/guidelines for SCL.
4. The above restrictions on SCL will not apply to the Institute declared Vacation Leave please refer to the Notification No.IITD/IESI/27506/2017 dated 21.3.2017 for SCL rules during vacation period.

All Heads of Deptts./Centers/Schools are requested kindly to bring this to the notice of all faculty members of their respective Deptts./Centers/Schools and take necessary action accordingly.

Sub:- Revised and consolidated guidelines for availing Special Casual Leave by the Faculty members of the Institute.

The Board of Governors, vide its Resolution No. BG/28/2010, had already approved the following guidelines to rationalize restrictions on leave during teaching days:-

1. Any faculty member involved in teaching should not take leave for more than 10 Teaching days in a semester and this includes Special Casual Leave. This would include all types of leave except for any leave taken on medical grounds.
2. Only a maximum of two trips outside the country will be permitted within the semester time period. (There would be no such restriction during the winter and summer break period)
3. A maximum of 30 days will be allowed as Special Casual Leave in a calendar year. This can be granted for attending any Selection Committee Meeting, Technical Meeting, giving a Seminar, external Ph.D./M.Tech. Viva, participating in a professional event like Conferences/Workshops/Symposiums etc. as well as for travel in connection with sponsored research/consulting projects and for visiting collaboration/clients in India or abroad.
4. Only working days would be counted towards this limit on the number of Special Casual Leaves taken. i.e. Saturdays, Sundays and other holidays will not be counted.

In addition to the above, the Chairman, Board of Governors, vide his approval dated 15.02.2017, has kindly approved the following guidelines also for availing the Special Casual Leave with immediate effect:-

1. Visits by the faculty members for field work can also be undertaken under Special Casual Leave.
2. Twice the number of unavailed or balance Special Casual Leave available to their credit can be availed by the faculty members during the vacation period for the purposes approved by the Board of Governors.

The Special Casual Leave, being availed during the vacation period, is coded as "SCLV" in the online leave system. Any leave preceded or followed by SCLV should be applied for separately.

All Heads of Deptts./Centers/Schools are requested kindly to bring this to the notice of all faculty members of their respective Deptts./Centers/Schools.
